Jason Mraz - You Fuckin Did It

                                                                  tom:
                                                            Am
Intro: Bm7  G7M  Gbm7  Bm7

                                                      Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                      Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                  Bm7
All those who are hanging around the water cooler
                                                          G7M
Will never believe how you tackled the thousand puzzle pieces
                                                        Gbm7
And you could see it before we completed it
Before we made it whole
                                                 Bm7
How you put it all together with a blindfold
                                                   Bm7
You're like a long game token that keeps the game going
                                                 G7M
But your claim to fame is how you like to lay low
                                                    Gbm7
Out of the lime light
Which can hurt your eyes
                                                   Bm7
If you're not careful you'll become another devil in disguise
                                                 Bm7
But you watch your back, you watch your back
                                                   G7M
You're growing eyes in the back of your head
                                                      Gbm7
To prevent another sneak attack, sneak attack
                                                      Bm7
You must be keepin' secret weapons in your fanny pack

                                                   G
You're like my laughing gas, you got the cat to dance
                                                    A
You're like Lance on a mountain in the tour de France
                                                  Gb
You got a wing span spanning the globe you got gold
                                                    Bm7
And you're teaching us to let go
                                                 G
You're a wise old owl when you're the cat's meow
                                                   A
If this were twelfth grade you'd be my cap and gown
                                                   Gb
If this were India then you'd be a sacred cow
                                                 Bm7
And I'd bow down to you
   Dbm7                                                   Gb   Gb7
So grateful to the gods for making you

                                                      Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                      Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                      Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                  Bm7
You'll be standing up for the equal right of the American people
                                                G7M
And you'll be meeting all the influential seekers with a similar
Gbm7
Dream
                                                                                                                Bm7
You've got a front seat saved that's emblazed with your name
And a super hero cape on
                                                   Bm7
You see the future as a sky full of possibility
                                                 G7M
With a spryness of mind and a psychic ability
                                              Gbm7
You probably won't die at the hands of an enemy
                                              Bm7
And not in a den of inequity

                                                G
You're not the average Joe
You're not the average Jane
You're not above or below
But you're never just plain
                                              Gb
You never take no personally
                                                 Bm7
And any time you get stopped you try another way
                                                   G
Could we settle for a kiss without a cease and desist
                                                 A
If they ask we won't tell 'cause we're activists
                                                   Gb
I am that I am and you are that you are
                                                   Bm7
And we're all that is
                                              G                   Dbm7 G        Gb  Gb7
How P-E-R-F-E-C-T your A-T-T- I-T-U-D-E be

                                                   Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

                                                   Bm7
You fuckin' did it
                                                    G7M
You really did it yeah
                                                    Gbm7
You really did it
                                                    Bm7
You really did it

( Bm7  G7M  Gbm7  Bm7 )
( G7M  Gbm7  Gb7  Gb  Gb7 )

                                                 Bm7                                                   G7M
When you circumnavigating the turntable call and attracts
                                                                                                     Gbm7
Like you be jumpin' in the water you be makin' a splash
You be keepin' your heart beat going
                                                 Bm7
And keepin' the harmony going
                                                   Bm7
Well there's an awful lot of music styles you could play
                                                   G7M

Well there's an awful lot of tastes
                                   Gbm7
An awful lot of dates you could be on

You be keepin' your back bone strong
       Bm7
And be keepin' the trombone blowin'

           G
Well every friend of mine will give each other high-fives
           A
When your beautiful mind is to your own devices
    Gb                                          Bm7
You do what you like and you always like what you try
    G
You touch me like an iPhone application
A
Move me like a smooth jazz music station
Gb                                          Bm7
Doin' what you do in the way that you choose to do them
Oh my god

       G
You're quick to be so quotable
                          A
Damn you got a way with words
                                            Gb
You got a magical handshake for saving the earth
You are a generous man
                        Bm7
You are so awesome it hurts

            G       Dbm7  G Gb  Gb7

And you are A-W-E-S-O-        M-E

            Bm7
You fuckin' did it
           G7M
You really did it yeah
           Gbm7
You really did it
           Bm7
You really did it

            Bm7
You fuckin' did it
           G7M
You really did it yeah
           Gbm7
You really did it
