Here's a story about the rules of death and glory

To be learned by heart by all children of men

It's the hour of the morning on the day after the dawning
Bb G
When the sun they said would never set finally set again
C C7 C C7
Was it cromwell or orwell who first led you to the stairwell

Which leads only forever to kingdom come

Life could be so handsome

Life could be so gay

In the pub that night racking out the lines of shite
Em (Riff 1)
Putting to right all of the world's great wrongs
F Am
Yes we thought that they were brothers then they half-murdered each other
Bb G
Then they did a karaoke turn and murdered our best song

C C7 C C7
Told the governor's wife about the last night of his life
Em (Riff 1)
She turned away in tears called you a liar
F Am

Where are all the old dreams now? the batallions, once so proud
Bb G G
Ab
Lost in some old song and hanging on the old barbedwire
C G Ab
Life could be so handsome
C G Ab
It's so good to be okay
C
We're going nowhere
Bb G
But nowhere, nowhere's on our way
