

2AM Club - Worry About You

Tom: Ab

(forma dos acordes no tom de G)
Capostrate na 1ª casa

For as long, long as I can remember
 Its been December, no sun no summertime to treasure
 We weren't grown
 And every time that they told us surrender
 It will be better
 We'd just go holding on till forever
 To what we know

Broken lover yes I made you
 Believe that I would be the one to heal you
 And if you go now out that doorway
 I won't say you're wrong
 But you know that I'll worry about you

For as long long as she can remember
 She wanted better
 No home no one there to protect her, all alone
 And so she told me I was her center
 Nothing would tempt her
 I still roamed
 Just like her father left her, ooh he left her

( D Bm )

Broken lover yes I made you
 Believe that I would be the one to heal you

And if you go now out that doorway
 I won't say you're wrong
 But you know that I'll worry about you
 Isn't it bad you've been a good victim
 You thought I was worth it you act like I would listen
 And maybe you were right at one point someday
 I used to watch you treat the streets like a runway
 I used to write with tears on your pretty painted face
 Sign language on your back from the first taste
 So when he whispers in your ear and you think of me
 You wish I would've treated you like you treated me
 When you wake up from your dreams to the hallway
 Sleepwalking through the streets dressed in all gray
 Blinking streetlamps in the window pane
 I worried from the second that I learned your name
 Everything in love is light
 But where was I last night
 And why don't you feel right
 Broken lover yes I made you
 Believe that I would be the one to heal you
 And if you go now out that doorway
 I won't say you're wrong
 But you know that I'll worry about you
