Tom: D
                                                                Riff A
  Riff 1 (Introdução) (Repete 2 vezes)
                                                                (Riff 2)
                                                                All my work and endless measures never seem to get me very far
                                                                Walk a mile just to move an inch
                                                                Now even though I'm trying so damn hard
                                                                I'm trying so hard
Riff 2 (versos):
                                                                (Riff 3)
                                                                This world can turn me down but I won't turn away
                                                                And I won't duck and run, cause I'm not built that way
                                                                When everything is gone there is nothing there to fear
Riff 3 (Refrão):
                                                                This world cannot bring me down
                                                                               (Riff B)
                                                                No cause I'm already here, oh no!
                                                                I am already here, down on my knees
                                                                I am already here, oh no, I am alreday here
Riff A (após primeiro refrão):

                                                                (S0L0)

                                                                I won't duck and run
                                                                I won't duck and run
                                                                I won't duck and run
                                                                No I won't pass away
S0L0:
                                                                (Riff 3)
                                                                This world can turn me down but I won't turn away
                                                                And I won't duck and run, cause I'm not built that way
                                                                When everything is gone there is nothing there to fear
                                                                This world cannot bring me down
Letra:
                                                                No cause I'm already here

(Riff 2)
To this world I'm unimportant just because I have nothing to
                                                                NOTAÇÃO:
So you call this your free country
                                                                h = hammer-on
Tell me why it cost so much to live
                                                                p = pull-off
Tell me why
                                                                / = slide
                                                                X = corda abafada

This world can turn me down
But I won't turn away, oh no
                                                                Um dos melhores discos que eu já ouvi...
I won't turn around
                                                                Uma das melhores bandas da atualidade...
