Tom: D
Intro:

Primeiro Verso: (Versão segunda Guitarra)

Primeiro Verso: (Versão Acústica)

Bm A G
I wanted to find somewhere to hide
Bm A G
and I opened up and let those fears inside
Bm A G
and I wanted to be anyone else
Bm A G
only to find that there was no one there but me

Chorus:

But I woke up to the real life
and I realized

It's not worth running from anymore when there was nowhere left to

hide I found out that nothing is real.. but I won't stop now until I find a better part of me

Pré-Verso:

Segunda Parte:

Bm A G
I let those hard days get me down
Bm A G
and all the things I hate got in my way
Bm A G
I could've screamed without a sound
Bm A G

I found myself silenced by those things they say

Chorus:

But I woke up to the real life
and I realized

It's not worth running from anymore when there was
nowhere left to

hide I found out that nothing is real.. but I won't
stop now until I find a better part of me

Bridge:

That's out there somewhere
and It cant be that far away
that's where I'll find myself
and I'll find my way out that's where I'll find out.

where I'll find out..(Ohhh...)

Break down

Chorus:

But I woke up to the real life
and I realized

hide I found out that nothing is real.. but I won't
stop now until I find a better part of me
