

33 Miles - No Greater Love

Tom: B

Intro: B Gb Abm E

On a hill There was a cross
 And all was lost In need of a savior
 There you were Arms stretched wide
 Crucified No love could be greater
 Than when you laid down your life

Who am I that you would come and die

I don't understand

Why the God of all the universe

Would become a man

To redeem the mess that I have made

And take away the shame of what I've done

There is no, no greater love

Every sin that held me down

Is lifted now Because of your mercy

Here I stand Forgiven and free

Grace covers me Though I'm so unworthy

But you laid down your life

Who am I that you would come and die

I don't understand

Why the God of all the universe

Would become a man

To redeem the mess that I have made

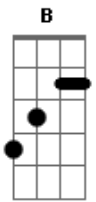

And take away the shame of what I've done

There is no, no greater love

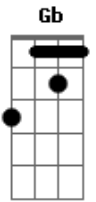

What love that you would give

Your life that I might live
