

33 Miles - No Greater Love

Tom: B

Intro: B Gb Abm E

On a hill There was a cross
 And all was lost In need of a savior
 There you were Arms stretched wide
 Crucified No love could be greater
 Than when you laid down your life

Who am I that you would come and die

I don't understand

Why the God of all the universe

Would become a man

To redeem the mess that I have made

And take away the shame of what I've done

There is no, no greater love

Every sin that held me down
 Is lifted now Because of your mercy
 Here I stand Forgiven and free
 Grace covers me Though I'm so unworthy
 But you laid down your life
 Who am I that you would come and die
 I don't understand
 Why the God of all the universe
 Would become a man
 To redeem the mess that I have made
 And take away the shame of what I've done
 There is no, no greater love
 What love that you would give
 Your life that I might live
