

4 Non Blondes - Drifting

Tom: G

(intro) G D Em D C7M C C7M
 C
 Em D G D
 What a wonderful hesitation
 Em D C D
 who would bear to feel sorry for me
 Em D G D
 dropped another pill just to calm me
 Em D C7M C C7M
 collapsed to my knees and fell fast into sleep
 C
 There I was drifting
 G Am C G
 way out into the sunshine
 Am7 C G
 expecting to crash but I'm tied to a string
 Am7 C G
 Look at me I'm a tangled puppet
 Am C G D E
 I might be a mess but I sure can survive
 Em D G D
 find myself awake counting sad days
 Em D C D
 1-2-3 that's too many for me
 Em D G D
 dropped another pill just to find me
 Em D reached for my hand
 C7M C C7M
 but it was already there
 C
 then I started believin' G Am C G
 that I fell out of a tiny raindrop
 Am7 C G
 that lost it's way when it decided to roam
 Am7 C G

chasing me was a hungry dweller
 Am C G
 but I had escaped it by pretending to die
 C C7M C
 Come follow me you won't expect the illusion
 G D Em
 you'll see, it's my imagination
 C C7M C
 hand me your eyes
 C
 I will put them in front of mine
 G
 You'll see a little better
 You'll see a little better

G D Em D G
 G D Em D C7M C C7M C
 Em D G D
 What a wonderful destination
 Em D C D
 where I'm now I can no longer see Em D G D
 dropped another pill just to kill me
 Em D C7M C C7M
 collapsed to my knees and fell fast into sleep
 C
 there I was drifting
 G Am C G
 way out into the sunshine
 Am C G
 expecting to crash but I'm tied to a string
 Am C G
 Look at me I'm a tangled puppet
 Am C G
 I might be a mess but I sure can survive
 Am C G
 But i had escaped it by pretending to die.
