[Primeira Parte]

It was the night before Christmas nineteen ninety five
 You broke her poor heart and she shattered your pride
 Outside that little honky tonk in Nashville, Tennessee
 Neon never looked so dim to me

[Segunda Parte]

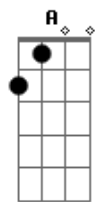

So you went back to your barstool, reopened your tab
 The barkeep came by and asked why you looked so sad
 Well you said it was nothin, but you knew that was a lie
 Tried your best not to break down and cry

[Refrão]

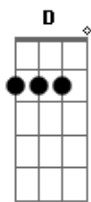

Then you said daaamn, darlin'
 Oh why?d you have to leave me alone in this bar
 With no daaamn, damn darlin'
 Oh Nashville you?ve broken my heart

( D A Bm A G )
 ( D E A )
 ( D A Bm A )

[Terceira Parte]

Then the jukebox started playing for the first time all night
 Since the band loaded out and they said their goodbyes
 And the first song they played was one she loved to hear
 So you listened as you finished your beer

[Quarta Parte]

And then that tear that Hank talked about, fell right on in
 Out of your eye and over the rim
 Of that glass that just became your only true friend
 Hearts break harder, at the old Exit/In

[Refrão]

Then you said daaamn, darlin'
 Well why?d you have to leave me alone in this bar
 With no daa-amn, darlin'
 Oh Nashville you?ve broken my heart

[Final]

Oh Nashville you?ve broken my heart
 Oh Nashville you?ve broken my heeaaaaart
 Woh oh you have broken my-y, my heart
