

5 Seconds Of Summer - Best Years

```
tom:
                                                                                                      Db (forma dos acordes no tom de C )
Capostraste na 1ª casa
                                                                          C
                                                                                                                                                                                                            Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Am
           You got a million reasons to hesitate
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Am G
                                                                                                                                                                             Dm
           But darling, the future's better than yesterday
                                                                                                   Dm Am
        Wasted?so much time?on people that reminded me of you
                                                                                                                                                                                                                       Am G
                                                                                                                   Dm
Gave you a million reasons to walk away
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Cmaj9
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Am
          But I built a house out of the mess and all the broken
                                                               Cmaj9 Am G F Em Dm
I'll make up for all of your tears
 [Refrão]
                                                                                                                                             C Dm Am
I'll give you the best yeeeears % \left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\} =\left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\} =
                                                                                                                                         C Dm Am
I'll give you the best yeeeears
Past love, burned out like a cigarette
                      Em
I promise, darling, you won?t regret

C Dm Am G
The best yeeeears
[Verse 2]
                                                                                                                                Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Am
          I wanna hold your hand when you drink too much
                                                                     Dm
          And carry you home when you can not stand up
                                                                                 Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                      Αm
```

```
You did all these things for me when I was half a man for
I wanna hold your hand while we're growing up
[Pré-Refrão]
                                     Am
 But I built a house out of the mess and all the broken
   C Cmaj9 Am G F Em Dm
I'll make up for all of your tears
[Refrão]
                      C Dm Am
I'll give you the best yeeeears
                     C Dm Am
I'll give you the best yeeeears
Past love, burned out like a cigarette
  Em
I promise, darling, you won?t regret

C Dm Am G
The best yeeeears
         C Dm Am G
The best yeeeears
( C Dm Am )
I'll give you the best yeeeears
                     C Dm Am
I'll give you the best yeeeears
Past love, burned out like a cigarette
  Em
I promise, darling, you won?t regret {\color{red}C} Dm {\color{red}Am} G
The best yeeeears
        C Dm Am G C
The best yeeeears
```

Acordes

