

A-Ha - Digital River

```
Brain carousel
               tom:
                                                                      Ε
Intro: E Gbm Dbm A E Gbm Dbm A
                                                           On a digital river we will drift
                                                           In an alien world that don?t exist
You give a word
                                                                     Е
                                                           A nonsensical quest, is what I mean
I send a word
  Dbm6 A
                                                                      Dbm
Now we are friends
                                                           Burning your eyes out on that screen
  Е
And as we drift so far downstream Gb Gbm B E B7 E
 В
I re-submit
  В
                                                           Nowhere is the place we?ve been
Time and again
                                                           Down the digital river we will go
Down a digital river we will flow
Gbm Dbm
                                                           Climb the virtual mountain I don?t you know
Climb a virtual mountain, don?t you know
                                                                        E
                                                           Th?re?s mythical places if you insist
      E Gbm
Enter mythical places clicks away
                                                           Dbm A E A Dbm A E A Dbm A Filling all of the blanks your life has missed
A A E A Dbm A What a wonderful way to spend a day
                                                                                A Dbm A
                                                           Down the digital river
You send a line
                                                                                    Gbm Dbm A
                                                           Down the digital river
I send you mine
                                                                                   Gbm Dbm A
                                                           Down the digital river
Auto spell
                                                                                   Gbm Dbm A
                                                           Down the digital river
                                                                                  Yeah
Back we go
 В
                                                           Down the digital river
To and fro
Acordes
                                           Gbm
                                                      Dbn
                                                                    Dbn6
                              Ε
```

E B7

