Oh come pity me a poor mad sailor stranded on this love here I lie

Like driftwood honey thing is this what I've become

I've got high over down under at a lady's will

Under you at a lady's will I'm drifting still I'm Drifting still

So I ask in fading innocence and all my full rage will your Hand still touch me when my face has fallen in with age

And I go high over down under at a lady's will

Under you high endless down under at a lady's will

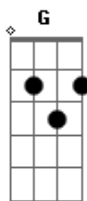

Under you at a lady's will I'm drifting still I'm drifting still
