

A-Ha - Living At The End Of The World

Tom: D

Intro: D D D A

Sometimes it leaves me with fear
 Never saw the horizon this near
 Look to the left then to the right
 I tuck you in and kiss you goodnight
 See there is something I know
 We are not whom we're told
 We are more than we'll never know
 And we're living at the end of the world
 Forget about all that you've heard
 Living our dreams on the highway
 It's just another day
 No matter what they say or you've heard
 We're living on top of the world
 We're living our dreams on the highway
 No matter what they say
 It's just another day
 I hear your heart beat in the night
 You are like an echo of light
 But in times when shallow runs deep

Your golden beauty goes cheap
 Still there is something I know
 Something yet to unfold
 And we are more than we'll never know
 And we're living at the end of the world
 Forget about all that you've heard
 Living our dreams on the highway
 It's just another day
 No matter what they say or you've heard
 We've made it to the top of the world
 Building up speed on the highway
 We've made it to the end
 Living at the end of the world
