

Aaron Watson - That Look

Tom: D

She keeps it all together, I always come unwound
 She's cool calm and collected, I wanna paint the town
 She's like a Sunday morning, I'm a dancehall saturday night
 She's like a stain glass window, I'm a lonestar neon light

She has another side, that no one sees but me
 She is the only one, that brings me to my knees
 There's something about Sinatra, and a bottle of Chardonnay
 Without a single word, she takes my breath away

[Refrão]

When she gets that look in her eyes, when she gets that want
 you
 Need to love you, right now that kind of look in her eyes
 She's always lookin' so fine, that I can't believe mine
 And when those stars align, just add a little white wine
 And moonlight and that girl's off the hook

When she's good she's good, but even better when she gets that look

She sparkles like a diamond, she twinkles like a star
 She's like a ray of sunshine, that always melts my heart
 And when I'm feeling empty, her love makes me whole
 Just like a country breeze, that soothes my weary soul

[Refrão]

When she gets that look in her eyes, when she gets that want

you
 Need to love you, right now that kind of look in her eyes
 She's always lookin' so fine, that I can't believe mine
 And when those stars align, just add a little white wine
 And moonlight and that girl's off the hook
 When she's good she's good, but even better when she gets that

Slow dancin', romancin', she's up to something Wearin' nothin' but her beautiful smile
 She's up to something, wearin' nothin' but a beautiful smile

[Refrão]

When she gets that look in her eyes, when she gets that want
 you
 Need to love you, right now that kind of look in her eyes
 She's always lookin' so fine, That I can't believe mine
 And when those stars align, Just add a little white wine
 And moonlight and that girl's off the hook

When she's good she's good, but even better when she gets that

When she's good she's good, but even better when she gets that

There's something about Sinatra
 And a bottle of Chardonnay, without a single word
 She takes my breath away, she's like a sunday morning
 I'm a saturday night, she's like a stain glass window
 I'm a neon light
