

Abandoning Sunday - Miles And States

Tom: A
Intro: D Gbm E D Gbm E

D Gbm E
And I know that there are miles in between where we both are
D Gbm E
But in my memories and dreams just know, you're never very far
D Gbm E
Don't be upset we'll both be home soon and we'll hold each other close
D Gbm E
We'll stay up late so I can tell you all the secrets no one knows
D D
E
It's time to go to sleep now, Love You're the one that I'll be dreaming of

D A E Gbm
And all these miles and states can't separate us both forever Gbm
D A E Gbm
And I'll keep praying for the day when we can simply be together
D A E Gbm
Until then I'm holding on for you and you alone tonight
D A E Gbm

Wishing that I could just be close and catch the tears you shouldn't cry
D Gbm E D Gbm E
I'll catch the tears you should not cry

D Gbm E
I hold this photograph of us that I have seen so many times
D Gbm E
And I just can't believe that you would ever let me call you mine
D Gbm E
I don't deserve you and I'm pretty sure you know it in your heart
D Gbm E
But if I ever feel alone I know just right where you are
D Gbm E
There is nothing that could keep me from covering this distance
D Gbm E
Hand in hand we run, so naive in finding out what this is
D Gbm E
Beautiful could never have a single thing on you
D Gbm E
Just like the angel that you are, I could never live without you
