

ABBA - Disillusion

Tom: G

Changing, moving, in a circle
 I can see your face in all of my dreams
 Smiling, laughing, from the shadows
 When I hear your voice I know what it means
 I know it doesn't matter just how hard I try
 You're all the reason for my life
 Disillusion, disillusion's all you left for me

How can I forget you when my world is breaking down
 You're all I have, you're all I want
 Disillusion, disillusion now, that's all I have

Wishing, hoping, chasing shadows
 Did I see your face somewhere in the crowd
 Thinking, wondering, what you're doing
 I can't stop myself from crying out loud
 They say my wound will heal and only leave a scar
 But then, they never shared our love
 Disillusion, disillusion's all you left for me
 How can I forget you when my world is breaking down
 You're all I have, you're all I want
 Disillusion,disillusions now, that's all I have
 Disillusion,disillusions now, that's all I have
