

Acácio Vilela - From The Stars

Tom: A

Sorry for all!
 All times that I let you down
 You always here with me

Sorry for all!
 All hard words that I've told you
 You always to smile

When you wake up in the morning
 I will let you to know
 That you are my precious stone

When you fell from the stars
 I was searching for something true
 When you fell from the stars
 I was growing too slowly, going down

With you I feel so strong

I feel I can face the risk
 Of losing myself

With you I can be better
 More than I could ever be alone
 Without you

When you wake up in the morning
 I will let you to know
 That you are my precious stone

When you fell from the stars
 I was searching for something true
 When you fell from the stars
 I was growing too slowly, going down

When you fell from the stars
 I was searching for something true
 When you fell from the stars
 I was growing too slowly, going down
