

Acadêmicos de Milton Friedman - Good Intentions

Tom: C

May I introduce myself
 I?m MC Professor Will
 I?m not here to reinvent the wheel
 But with a bit of patience we might understand a few
 Of causes and effects and what?s the deal
 About poverty and economic failure
 When policies based on good intentions gets real

The minimum wage intends to provide Better pay for the workers, so they can live decent lives
 But when the joint in the corner is forbidden to hire
 For less than a minimum, they have to deprive
 The young and the unexperienced from the opportunity to learn and acquire
 The skills that are required
 Further up, when they try to make in in life, what did they find?
 A bunch of shut doors with the unions sign
 A bunch of shut doors with the unions sign
 Cause the truth is that any given law, when it?s signed
 Is actually about the prohibitions implied Or as the Ambassadors, the Acadêmicos de Milton Friedman would say
 Boa intenção, o inferno já tá cheio, irmão. Não vai colar

Boa intenção, o inferno já tá cheio, irmão. O inferno já tá cheio, irmão
 Pra cima desse rasta não!

The right to education is a beautiful thing
 The UN?s shiny diamond ring
 But schools won?t pop up ? you gotta collect
 And with all that dough, there?s more room for neglect
 As bureaucracy gets that big government check
 The machine starts running and the cash falls fast
 They feast and they spend it and the teachers resent it
 As schools get bigger and their finances linger
 Not to mention the loans for higher education
 Guaranteed by the fed to boost the credit expansion Education inflation is what you get
 When you try to move people like pawns in chess Regulation kicks in, mining competition
 As the broke and young struggle for tuition
 ?But none of it matters, it?s never been better?
 The men in suit will tell you when they show the score
 With the increasing numbers to make you come back for more

[Solo de flauta]

É isso aí meu irmão!

 ?If we wish to be compassionate with our fellow man
 We must learn to engage in dispassionate analysis
 In other words, thinking with our hearts, rather than our brains
 Is a surefire method to hurt those whom we wish to help?
 (Walter Williams)
