

Adam Lambert - Broken Open

tom:
 Broken pieces, break into me
 So imperfectly what you should be
 I don't want you to go
 Don't wanna see you back out in the cold
 Air you're breathing out fades you to grey
 Don't run away, find me
 I know the battles of chasing the shadows of who you wanna be
 It doesn't matter, go on and shatter
 I'm all you need
 Broken pieces, break into me
 So imperfectly what you should be
 Lay here, it's safe here, I'll let you be broken open
 Hide here, confide here so we can be broken open
 Let's enlighten the night

We can fall away, slip out of sight
 When you drop your guard
 Melt into time, so intertwined, quiet
 I know the battles of chasing the shadows of who you wanna be
 It doesn't matter, go on and shatter
 I'm all you need
 Broken pieces, break into me
 So imperfectly what you should be
 Lay here, it's safe here, I'll let you be broken open
 Hide here, confide here so we can be broken open
 Broken pieces, break into me
 So imperfectly what you should be
 Lay here, it's safe here, I'll let you be broken open
 Hide here, confide here so we can be broken open
 Lay here, it's safe here, I'll let you be broken open
 Hide here, confide here so we can be broken open
