                                                                     (never gets him very far)
   The chords are played with a reggae beat, something like
                                                                    Oh fuck you car
this:
                                                                    VERSE 3:
                                                                    It's got no CD player
                     or like this:
                                                                    It only got the fuckin 8-track
                                                                    Whoever designed my car
                                                                     can lick my sweaty nutsack (they can lick his ass too)
   Remember to sing with a stupid Jamaican accent. The words

I'm always way out of control parantheses ( ) are the backing vocals. All the verses and Eleven times a day
   have the same chord progression: A E D2 E.
                                                                     I hear 'hey, watch it asshole'
                                                                     (you fucking piece of shit)
Intro: Gbm E D2
                Here we go
                                                                    CHORUS: [play like previous chorus]
   A E D2 E
                     No, no, no
                                                                     (piece of shit car)
                                                                    I got a piece of shit car
       Е
                 D2 E
                                                                     (you got a piece of shit car)
   (oooh ooooh) (oooooh ooooooh)
                                                                    Diesel gas sucks my ass
                                                                     (you fucking pile of shit)
   VERSE 1:
                                                                    That pile of metal shit
                                                                    BRIDGE:
   Piece of shit car
                                                                                 D2
                                                                    Oh what the fuck did I do?
        I got a piece of shit car
                                                                    what the fuck did I do?
   That fucking pile of shit
                                                                    what the fuck did I do?
   never gets me very far
                                                                    to get stuck with you?
   My car's a big piece of shit
                                                                    You're too wide for drive through
              D2
   'cause the shocks are fucking shot
                                                                    and you smell like tissue
     and my seatbelt's fucking broken
                                                                             Gbm
            D2
                                                                    but I'm too broke to buy something new
   I got to tie it in a knot
                                                                    Ooooh, fuck me
   (it's a piece of shit)
                                                                    GUTTAR-SOLO:
   VERSE 2: [play same as verse 1]
                                                                    Played over verse/chorus chords: A E D2 E a few times.
   I can't see throught the windshield
   'cause it's got a big fucking crack
                                                                    VERSE 4: [play same as verses 1,2 & 3]
   and the interior smells real bad
   'cause my friend puked in the back
                                                                    Well, the engine likes to flood
   (it's a piece of shit)
                                                                    the car always fucking stalls
                                                                    and the seat cushion's got a big rip
   CHORUS:
                                                                     so a spring always pokes the balls
                                                                     (ouch ouch ouch)
                                                                    Blasted doorlocks are busted
   (piece of shit car)
                                                                    I got to use a fucking coathanger
                                                                     (what a pain in his ass)
                                                                    and if a girlie sees my car
   Piece of shit car
                                                                    there's no chance I'll ever bang her
                                                                     (he never ever get the pussy)
                                                                    Hey shut up

CHORUS: [play like previous choruses]

(piece of shit car)
You piece of shit car
(he got a piece of shit car)
You piece of shit car
(piece of shit car)
Bald fucking tires
(he got a piece of shit car)
No rearview fucking mirror
(piece of shit car)
Seven different colors

Acordes

(he got a piece of shit car)
Fucking rag for a gas cap
(piece of shit car)
Tailpipe making sparks fly everywhere
(he got a piece of shit car)
(piece of shit car)
Whoooooooah
(he got a piece of shit car)
(piece of shit car)
Me hometown thinks I'm a loser
(he got a piece of shit car)
hey cabbie, give me a push
(piece of shit car)
