

Adrian Gurvitz - Classic

Tom: D

Gotta write a classic, Gotta write it in an attic

Babe, I'm an addict now, An addict for your love

I was a stray boy, And you was my best toy

Found it easy to annoy you, But you were different from the rest

And I loved you all the wrong ways, Now listen to my say
If it changed to another way, Would the difference make it

Would it be a classic, I've got to send it right away

Gotta write a classic (I'm so low and I'm out of control without your love)

Gotta write it in an attic (One look, can't flow, and there's no living without you)

Babe, I'm an addict now (Deep down I know you never here a word I say)

And I'm an addict for your love

Got to write it down and send it right away

Gotta write a classic (I'm so low and I'm out of control without your love)

Gotta write it in an attic (One look, can't flow, and there's no living without you)

Babe, I'm an addict now (Deep down I know you never here a word I say)
And I'm an addict for your love

Now I'm livng my life one day at a time

Since losing your love I've been losing my mind

No more can I see the future so clear

And it's not what I mean, I mean it's not what it seems

I just keep living for dreams
And it's not what I mean, I mean it's not what it seems
I just keep living for dreams

Gotta write a classic (I'm so low and I'm out of control without your love)

Gotta write it in an attic (One look, can't flow, and there's no living without you)

Babe, I'm an addict now (Deep down I know you never here a word I say)

And I'm an addict for your love
Got to write it down and send it right away

I'm so low and I'm out of control without your love

One look, can't flow, and there's no living without you

Deep down I know you never here a word I say

Got to write it down and send it right away
Got to write it down and send it right away
One look, can't flow, and there's no living without you
