

Aerolyn - WeFightFail

Tom: G

Just this once, why don't you see things through?
 You're down for the count but I won't count you out
 Just trust in me, I'll help you see
 You always take the easy way out
 Haven't you found where this road leads to yet?
 (Em)

My love
 Why waste our youth like this?
 We can't make too much of ourselves
 And now we're left with two
 But we're stronger than we've ever been

Failure feeds on your dreams
 Don't let it pull you down
 You say it's too late now
 Your flames burnt out

Can you say
 But can you say that you have tried?
 You say it's too late now
 Your flames burnt out
 But you're a liar, liar
 (C Am)

Open your eyes again
 I know I have prepared you for this
 Our fight is between lions and men
 They always tell you that you can't win
 We will prove them wrong
 For the first time but not the last time

Some will win, some will try

Just keep him alive

(C D)

Failure feeds on your dreams
 Don't let it pull you down
 You say it's too late now
 Your flames burnt out

Can you say
 But can you say that you have tried?

You say it's too late now
 Your flames burnt out
 But you're a liar, liar

(C Am Em G)

Just take a breath, and do the right thing
 I don't know if you can hear me

Just take a breath, and do the right thing

Just take a breath, and do the right thing
 I don't know if you're even listening

Just take a breath, and do the right thing

Are you even listening to me?

Why don't you open up and try to see

That the hardest thing we can do

Is to follow through?

Now you leave when we're closer than we've ever been (Just do the right thing)

I'll follow through until we finish what we've started
 (Just open up your eyes and let me in)

And we will try to do the right thing
 (To do the right thing)

Just open up your eyes and let me in
 Just open up your eyes and let me in
 Just open up your eyes and let me in
