

Aerosmith - Bright Light Fright

Tom: A

(intro) (E B )

It's the dawn of the day
 And I'm crashed and I'm smashed
 As it is I'm feelin'
 Like my chips are cashed
 All of my clothes
 Strewn all over the room
 The crisis at hand is
 I'm all out of zoom
 I've got the sunrise blues
 I can't find my shoes
 The only thing on tv
 Is the good morning news
 The tricks in the night
 Keepin' me in a daze
 Well, open the bottle
 And we'll pull down the shades
 Glance in the mirror
 Back into bed

Forget that it's day
 Time to party again
 I've got the sunrise blues
 I can't find my shoes
 The only thing on tv
 Is the good morning news
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 God, give me the night
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 God, give me the night
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 God, give me the night
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 Bright light fright
 God, give me the night
 I've got the sunrise blues
 I can't find my shoes
 The only thing on tv is the good morning news
