

Against The Current - Chasing Ghosts

```
[Pré-Refrão]
                            tom:
                Gbm (forma dos acordes no tom de Em )
                                                                                 Fm
                                                                Remember when we met, yeah, I know I was mean
Capostraste na 2ª casa
Intro: Em G C Am
                                                                Stones shirt, black boots and black jeans
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                     Em
                                                                And you were such a mess, I thought it was sweet
 We used to have a light, Now it's too dark to shine
                                                                But that night still haunts my dreams
       Am
 Oooohh, Oooh Oooohh
                                                               [Refrão]
Now we're just passing by, Two shipwrecks in the night
                                                               I won't keep chasing ghosts, I need somebody I can hold
 Oooohh, Oooh Oooohh
                                                               Gave you my heart and soul, Thought I was chasing love
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               I was only chasing a ghost
 Remember when we met, yeah, I know I was mean
                                                               Aaaahhhh, Aaaah, Thought I was chasing love
                      Em
 Stones shirt, black boots and black jeans
                                                               I was only chasing a ghost
                                                                   C G D
 And you were such a mess, I thought it was sweet
                                                               Aaaahhh Aaaahh
 But that night still haunts my dreams
                                                               [Ponte]
[Refrão]
                                                                Remember when you left, yeah, I thought it was mean
                                                                Stones shirt, black boots and everything
I won't keep chasing ghosts, I need somebody I can hold
                                                                                  Fm
                                                                I let you fool me twice, shame on me
Gave you my heart and soul, Thought I was chasing love
                                                                But that night still haunts my dreams
I was only chasing a ghost Em C G
                                                               [Refrão]
Aaaahhhh, Aaaah, Thought I was chasing love
I was only chasing a ghost
                                                               I won't keep chasing ghosts, I need somebody I can hold
                                                               Gave you my heart and soul, Thought I was chasing love
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               I was only chasing a ghost
 Blue from the TV light, two bodies intertwined
                                                               Aaaahhhh Aaaah, Thought I was chasing love
       Am
 Oooohh, Oooh Oooohh
                                                               I was only chasing a ghost
 I guess we tempted fate, always so far away
 Oooohh, Oooh Oooohh
                                                               Aaaahhhh Aaaah, Thought I was chasing love
                                                               I was only chasing a ghost
```

Acordes

