

Akon - Birthmark

Tom: C

G G Em C
 G
 Yeahhhh (Yeahhh)
 Ohh (Ohh)
 Em
 Yeahhh (Yeahhh)
 C
 Ohh (Ohh)
 Yeaahh

G
 I made the mark on February 1st
 G
 Between me and you, you can call it birth

Em
 The beginning of our universe
 remind me of Alicia Keys first

G
 I'm falling for you
 G
 I wish I had an opportunity to not do

Em
 What I did to hurt you
 And now I'm here livin' with regrets

I know that it was my fault
 I know that I got caught
 So please dont loose your thoughts
 Me lovin' you and you lovin' me
 I'm on the highway swurvin'
 I ain't drunk but I'm about to hit the curb
 Lookin' at the calendar gettin' nervous Just a few more days till the first

Chorus:
 So this the day it all began
 One place that it came together
 More than a ring or a tattoo
 It's your birthmark that reminds me of you
 So let's get on a airplane
 Go back to where we began
 To that point which is days apart
 That's stamped right next to your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart (To your heart) (X3)
 (Your heart) (X3)

Get the calendar, go to August 3rd
 First words today, we had our first words

First arguement got to let it go
 Cuz it could possibly affect what our future holds
 Flipping pages now I'm famous
 Thinking back I ain't seen you in ages
 Wishin' that I could have made it less painless
 Brings me back, right back to the same mess

I know that it was my fault
 I know that I got caught
 So please dont loose your thoughts
 Me lovin' you and you lovin' me
 I'm on the highway swurvin'
 I ain't drunk but I'm about to hit the curb
 Lookin' at the calendar gettin' nervous
 Just a few more days till the first

Chorus:
 So this the day it all began
 One place that it came together
 More than a ring or a tattoo
 It's your birthmark that reminds me of you
 So let's get on a airplane
 Go back to where we began
 To that point which is days apart
 That's stamped right next to your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart (To your heart) (X3)
 (Your heart) (X3)

January, February, March, April, May
 June, July, August is just another day
 September, October, November tryin' to find a way
 And December the month my calendar defeat again
 If only we could go
 To that place where me and you know
 There's no fake, front, cheat or even lyin'
 The time has come where we stand face to face

Chorus:
 This the day it all began
 One place that it came together
 More than a ring or a tattoo
 It's your birthmark that reminds me of you
 So let's get on a airplane
 Go back to where we began
 To that point which is days apart
 That's stamped right next to your heart
 To your heart (X3)
 That's stamped right right next to your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart
 To your heart (To your heart)(X3)
 That's stamped right next to your heart
