

Al Green - I'm So Tired Of Being Alone

Tom: G

I'm so tired of being alone,
I'm so tired of on-my-own,
won't you help me, girl,
just as soon as you can.
People say that I've found a way, to make you say,
that you love me.

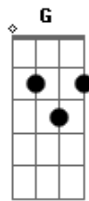

But baby,
you didn't go for that,
me, it's a natural fact,
that I wanna come back, G7sus4add9

show me where it's at, baby.

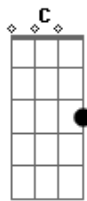

I'm so tired of being alone,
I'm so tired of on-my-own,
won't you help me, girl,
just as soon as you can.
I guess you know that I, uh, love you so, even though,
you don't want me no more,

Now I'm cryin' tears,
all through the years,
I tell you like it is,
love me if you will.
Ya baby,
