

Alan Jackson - 1976

Tom: A
Intro: A D E A E A

A D E
Rockie burned up the movie screen and I was turnin seventeen
A D E
Tie-dyed shirts and Levis jean, lookin cool at the Dairy
Queen
A D E
Tryin to impress a young woman in her Sunday dress

Refrão:

D A
And that was 1976, didn't know who I was yet
E A
A pretty little blonde haired girl, stole my heart and changed
my world
D A
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

Solo: A D E A E A

A D E
My high school days I packed away, set my sights on a bigger stage
A D E
Jimmy Carter moved to DC, a Georgia boy just like me,
A D E
Life seemed easy, nothin much that we needed

Refrão:

D A
And that was 1976, didn't know who I was yet
E A
A pretty little blonde haired girl, stole my heart and changed
my world
D A
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
E D A

Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

D A
And that was 1976, didn't know who I was yet
E A
A pretty little blonde haired girl, stole my heart and changed
my world

D A
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

(A D A E A D A E D A)

A D E
Eight track tapes were still in style and Elvis was still alive

A D E
Wonder Woman sure looked fine, Bionic Man was still Prime Time

A D E
And that girl I liked, we kept on tryin till we got it right

Refrão:

D A
And that was 1976, didn't know who I was yet
E A
A pretty little blonde haired girl, stole my heart and changed
my world

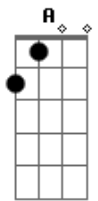

D A
Two kids and a moonlit sky, a little love on a Friday night
E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

A D A
Yeah, that was 1976, didn't know who we were yet
E D A
Built a fire that just wont quit and that was 1976

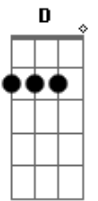

E D A
We built a fire that just wont quit, that was 1976

(A D E A)

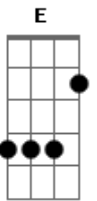

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com