

Alan Jackson - Another Good Reason Not To Drink

Tom: E

(intro) riff B E

(verse I)

E I woke up the other night lyin' on the floor B

Right beside someone I'd never seen before E
She said my name is juliet

A romeo you ain't

B E That's another good reason not to drink

(refrão)

E B That's another good reason not to drink

When I'm sober I'm almost A saint
If I keep goin' on like this

A I'll end up like ole Hank

B E That's another good reason not to drink

E

(verse II)

I can't go see my best friend

B He said stay away

E Just because of what I said on his wedding day
You oughta call her sherman

A 'cause she look's just like a tank

B E that's another good reason not to drink

(refrão)

E B

That's another good reason not to drink

E When I'm sober I'm almost A saint
If I keep goin' on like this

A I'll end up like ole Hank

B E That's another good reason not to drink

(solo)

(verse III)

(bridge)

F C Now I'm gonna sue the city about that policeman
Last night as I left the bar

F He stepped right on my hand
He said are you drunk or blind

Bb I said let me think

F And that's another good reason not to drink

(refrão)

F C That's another good reason not to drink

F When I'm sober I'm almost a saint
If I keep goin' on like this

Bb I'll end up like ole Hank

F C That's another good reason not to drink
Baby let me in I'm freezin'

F C And another good reason not to drink

(violin solo)

(refrão)

(fade out)

Acordes

