

Alan Jackson - Blue Ridge Mountain Song

Tom: G
Intro: G C G C D G

G C G
He met her in the fall of 93 in the hills of Tennessee

C
She was barely seventeen

Em
He was tall and strong and lean

Am
They were deep in love by June

Em Am D
Hand in hand beneath that moon

D
And she'd

G C
Sing a little blue ridge mountain song

G
And he'd just hum along

C
They'd dance all night til dawn

Em
On a hillside all alone

Am
They were young and they were free

Em
Like a mountain melody

Am D
In love as they could be

D G
Singin' that blue ridge song

Intro: G C G C D G

G C
She married in her momma's wedding gown

G
Bought a house and settled down

C Em
He worked drivin' all around, haulin' logs from town to town

Am
And he'd come home every night

Em Am D
She'd be waiting in the front porch light

D
And she'd

G C
Sing a little blue ridge mountain song

G
And he'd just hum along

C
They'd dance all night til dawn

Em
On the front porch all alone

Am
They were young and they were free

Em
Like a mountain melody

Am
In love as they could be

D G
Singin' that blue ridge song

( G C G C Em Am Em Am D G C G )

G C
They couldn't tell him what was wrong

G
For they just didn't know

C Em
It wasn't very long, til Jesus called her home

Am
Then he got down on his knees

Em Am D

Said, God don't take my love from me

D
Just let her

G C
Sing a little blue ridge mountain song

G
like she has all along

C
I'll dance with her til dawn

Em
On a hillside all a-lone

Am
And we'll spend eternity

Em
Like a mountain melody

Am D
In love as we can be

D G
Singin' that blue ridge song

( G C G C D G C G )

G C
Now he lives there all alone

G
In the house that they called home

C
In his heart there lies a void

Em
From the absence of her voice

Am
And he lays down every night

Em Am D
And dreams about that front porch light

D
Where she'd

G C
Sing a little blue ridge mountain song

G
And he'd just hum along

C
They'd dance all night til dawn

Em
On the hillside all alone

Am
They were young and they were free

Em
Like a mountain melody

Am D
In love as they could be

D G
