

Alan Jackson - Buicks On The Moon

Tom: G
Intro:

G C G
How long will I love you I don't really know
C G D
I'd like to think forever is how far we could go
G C G
So let me paint a picture of how it's gonna be
C D G
The day you don't mean everything to me

Chorus:

D C G
When a nickel's worth a dollar and gold ain't worth a dime
D C
When they build a ship on waters that will take you back in time
G C Em
When the stars have all been counted and I stop lovin' you

C D G
Honey they'll be drivin' Buicks to the moon

G C Em
C D G

G C G
You don't have to worry about what comes to pass
C G D
This ol' world may wear out but my love's gonna last
G C G
If they ever build that highway to the moon
C D G
I'll just find somethin' else to promise you

D G C Em
When the stars have all been counted and I stop lovin' you
C D G
Honey they'll be drivin' Buicks to the moon

Acordes

