

Alan Jackson - Live On Love

Tom: A

(A E A D A E A E)

^D Two young people, without a thing; say some vows, Despread their wings

Settle down just what they need, livin' on love.

^D She don't care about what's in style, she just likes way he smiles

It takes more than marble and tile, livin' on love.

Livin' on love, buyin' on time without somebody nothin' ain't worth a dime

Just like an old fashion storybook rhyme, livin' on love.

It's sounds simple, that's what you're thinkin';

love can walk through fire without blinkin'

It doesn't take much when you get enough; livin' on love.

^A Two old people without a thing, children gone, still they sing

Side by side on that front porch swing; livin, on love.

He can't see anymore, she can barely sweep the floor

Hand-in-hand they'll walk through that door, just livin' on love.

Livin' on love, buyin' on time without somebody nothin' ain't worth a dime

Just like an old fashion storybook rhyme, livin' on love.

It's sounds simple, that's what you're thinkin';

love can walk through fire without blinkin'

It doesn't take much when you get enough; livin' on love.

Livin' on love, buyin' on time without somebody nothin' ain't worth a dime

Just like an old fashion storybook rhyme, livin' on love.

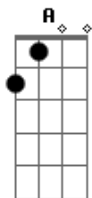

It's sounds simple, that's what you're thinkin';

love can walk through fire without blinkin'

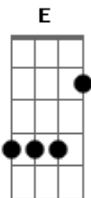

It doesn't take much when you get enough; livin' on love.

No, it doesn't take much when you get enough, livin' on love.
