

Alan Jackson - Where I Come From

```
Tom: A
                                                                3. I was chasing sun on 101, somewhere 'round Ventura,
   (intro) E A B7 (3x) D A E
                                                                    I had lost a universal joint, and I had to use my finger.
I was rolling wheels and shifting gears 'round that Jersey
                                                                    This tall lady stopped and asked if I had plans for turnpike, dinner.
when Barney stopped me with his gun ten minutes after I said, No, thanks, Ma?m, back home we like the girls that midnight.
                                                                sing soprano.
                                                                'Cause
R7
Said, Sir, you broke the limit in that rusty ol? truck.
                                                                Where I come from, it?s cornbread and chicken,
                                                                                                                            В7
                                                                where I come from, a lot of front porch sitting.
I don?t know about that accent son, just where did you come from?
                                                                                                                         R7
I said?
                                                                Where I come from, trying to make a living,
                                                                and working hard to get to heaven, where I come from.
Where I come from, it?s cornbread and chicken,
                                                                (intro) E A B7 (3x) D A E
where I come from, a lot of front porch sitting.
                                                        R7
                                                                                                                         Α
Where I come from, trying to make a living,
                                                                I was heading home on 65, somewhere around Kentucky,
and working hard to get to heaven, where I come from.
                                                                the CB rang from a bobtail rig, that?s a rolling on like (intro) E A B7 (3x) D A E
                                                                thunder.
                                                                Well, I answered him and he asked me, Aren?t you from out in
    I was south of Detroit City, pulled in this country kitchen,
                                                                B7
                                                                No, but you might?a seen me there, I just dropped a load of to try their brand of barbecue, sign says ?finger salsa lickina?.
                      R7
                                                                R7
    Well, I paid the tab and the lady asked me, how?d I like Where I come from, it?s cornbread and chicken, B7
mv biscuit?
                                                                where I come from, a lot of front porch sitting.
                                                                                                                         R7
    I?ll be honest with you, M?am, it ain?t like Moma fixed
                                                                Where I come from, trying to make a living,
'Cause
                                                                and working hard to get to heaven, where I come from.
Where I come from, it?s cornbread and chicken,
where I come from, a lot of front porch sitting.
                                                                Where I come from, it?s cornbread and chicken,
                                                         В7
                                                                                                                            B7
Where I come from, trying to make a living,
                                                                where I come from, a lot of front porch sitting.
                                                                                                                         R7
                                                                Where I come from, trying to make a living,
and working hard to get to heaven, where I come from.
(intro) E A B7 (3x) D A E
                                                                and working hard to get to heaven, where I come from.
                 E
                                                                    Where I come from, yeah, where I come from?
Acordes
```

