

Alan Walker - Tired

Tom: D

^{Bm} I see those tears in your eyes
^{Bm} I feel so helpless inside
^{Bm} Oh love, there's no need to hide
^A Just let me love you when your heart is tired

^{Bm} Cold hands, red eyes
^A Packed your bags at midnight
^{Bm} They've been there for weeks
^D I don't know what came by me

^{Em} Just roll up a cigarette
^G Just forget about this mess
^G Been waiting on the sidelines
^{Bm} From the sidelines

^D I see those tears in your eyes
^D And I feel so helpless inside
^D Oh love, there's no need to hide
^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
^D If your ghost pulls you up high
^D And it feels like you've lost who you are
^D My love, there's no need to hide
^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you

^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
^A When you whisper, I'm alright
^A But I see through your white lies
^{Bm} But these walls don't talk
^D And if they could, they'd say

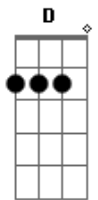

^{Em} Can't hide the secrets
^G You can't forget about this mess
^G I'm waiting on the sidelines
^{Bm} From the sidelines

Just roll up a cigarette
 Just forget about this mess

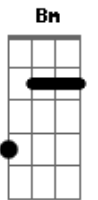

Been waiting on the sidelines
 From the sidelines

^D I see those tears in your eyes
^D And I feel so helpless inside
^D Oh love, there's no need to hide
^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
^D If your ghost pulls you up high
^D And it feels like you've lost who you are
^D My love, there's no need to hide
^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you
^D Just let me love you when your heart is tired
