

Alanis Morissette - London

Tom: E

E
 what it feels to fall in to the pool
 E B E
 the hard shell bugs bite my forearm
 B E
 my right index fingernail chewed to the quick
 B E
 my cervix is a long part E B
 my sprinklers go off at 6pm each day
 D
 and sometimes they spray unsuspecting visitors
 B E
 my pimples are goosebumps(hairs?) all over my legs
 B E
 my brow is furrowed and my vision is blurred

E B A E
 and how I do love London
 E B A E
 and how I do love London

E
 the birds make guttural sounds and protect me
 E B E
 my friends come to visit and love me a lot
 B E
 I don't have the energy to fill this
 B E
 I am like flight attendants on a 12 hour flight

E B A E

and how I do love London
 E B A E
 and how I do love London

(NOW ALLEGRO, WITH BASS NOTES RUNNING AROUND )

E
 i am intrigued by the boy with songs
 D
 sometimes they write sometimes they write
 B E
 the steam will smell of puke and left us in the shower
 B E
 the hug will feel forced upon you inconsolable thing
 E B A E
 and how I do love London
 E B A E
 and how I do love London

(AGAIN BALLAD STYLE )

E B E deep breaths will not make my brain stand still D E
 to be loved and swallowed are single and depraved
 A Cm D B
 i love speaking french to the taxi drivers
 A Cm D B
 we slept and were cold on the train out of france

E B A E
 E B A E
 and how I do love London
