

Alanis Morissette - 'Til You

Tom: Bb

I've been wasting time clawing my way to you
 Taking no prisoners with my romantic crimes
 I've been holding out imagining glimpses of you
 Holding my breath while you come down the pike

Refrão:

Spinning my wheels 'round
 I'm here dodging bullets 'til you
 Ear to the ground

While I'm dodging bullets 'til you - ooh!

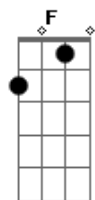

I've been taking notes, nursing the thought of you
 Research and develop as i'm biding my time
 I've been holding up this magnet that calls to you
 Entertaining myself with these consolation prizes

(Refrão)

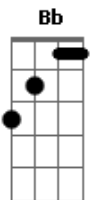

They've been plenty fun, but mere placeholders for you
 They fill this dance card as you form in my mind

(Refrão)
