

Alanis Morissette - Your House

Tom: A

Hit bass notes A, F#, E independent from the rest of the chord on

A2, F#, and E

A2 Gb
I went to your house

I walked up the stairs E

And I opened your door without the ringing the bell D2

A2 Gb
Walked down the hall

Into your room where I could smell you E D2

And I shouldn't be here without permission Gbm7 B7

Gbm7 B7
Shouldn't be here

Would you forgive me love
If I dance in your shower
Would you forgive me love
If I laid in your bed
Would you forgive me love
If I stay all afternoon

I took off my clothes
I put on your robe
and I went through your drawers

And I found your cologne
Went down to the den
Found your C.D.s
And I played your Joni

And I shouldn't stay long you might be home soon
I shouldn't stay long

Would you forgive me love
If I dance in your shower
Would you forgive me love
If I laid in your bed
Would you forgive me love
If I stay all afternoon

I burn your incense
I ran a bath and I noticed a letter
That sat on your desk
It said "hello love"
"I love you so, love"
"Meet me at midnight"

And no it wasn't my writing I better go soon
It wasn't my writing

So forgive me love
If I cry in your shower
So forgive me love
For the salt in your bed
So forgive me love
If I cry all afternoon
