

Alec Benjamin - Gabriel

Tom: G
Gabriel, the oldest son
He praised the lord and married young
Became a priest in night confession
Cure the people of transgression
Gabriel, he held the weight of Everybody's toxic waste and
With a load upon his shoulder
Couldn't sleep as he got older
Ohhh, what it means to be someone
That everybody has to talk to
Everybody has to talk to
    C
Ohhh, oh Gabriel
He had no one that he could talk to
Gabriel, he had no one that he could talk to
Looking for a place to be
Or some place he could hide his grief
Gabriel went to the beach and
Set out for the open sea
Heave the baggage from the sand
Aboard the vessel with his hands and
When he couldn't see the land
```

Acordes

```
Release the their sins on his command
Ohhh, what it means to be someone
That everybody has to talk to
Everybody has to talk to
Ohhh, oh Gabriel
He had no one that he could talk to
Gabriel, he had no one that he could talk to
As the problem slowly drifted
All the weight was quickly lifted
From his back into the sea
He finally felt he was free
When he got home after months
Sat down and waited for lunch
He looked down at an empty dish
Cuz' all their sins had killed the fish
Ohhh, what it means to be someone
That everybody has to talk to
Everybody has to talk to
Ohhh, oh Gabriel
He had no one that he could talk to
Gabriel, he had no one that he could talk to
But is Gabriel responsible?
