

Alec Benjamin - My Mother's Eyes

Tom: G

Intro: Am Em F C

Em C
I can't believe you love me
Am
After all the things i've done
C
I think i've been the devil
Em
Since the day that i've turned one

F
Like when I stole your money

Just to buy a pack of gum

I know it wasn't funny
C
Can't believe I was so dumb

Am
I blame it on my age
Bm
But even now, I'm not so young

Em
I'm still stuck in my ways

I cant believe what I've become

F
Somehow, you feel the same

I guess that's motherly love

Em
Motherly love

Am
Wish I could find the piece in me
Em
To see the good things that you see
F C
It's not that easy

Am
But if I saw me through your eyes

Em
Maybe I could find a way

F
To forgive all of the lies

And the stupid things I say

Em Am
And if I could realize
Em
That it's your blood that I bleed

F
Maybe I could love myself

C
Like the way that you love me

Em C Am
If I saw me through your eyes

Em
Your eyes

F
Through your eyes

C Em
Through my mother's eyes

I can't believe you love me

Am
After all the things I've did

Em
Like when I said I hated you when we were in Madrid

F
Like when I didn't answer you cause I was on the road
C Em

But you cooked my favorite dinner for me right when I get home

Am
I blame it on my stress
Bm
Cause I've been feeling so high strung

Em
I'm looking for excuses

And I know that isn't one

F
Somehow, you feel the same

I guess that's motherly love

Em
Motherly love

Am
Wish I could find the piece in me
Em
To see the good things that you see
F
It's not that easy

C Am
But if I saw me through your eyes

Em
Maybe I could find a way

F
To forgive all of the lies

C
And the stupid things I say

Em C
And if I could realize
Em
That it's your blood that I bleed

F
Maybe I could love myself

C
Like the way that you love me
