

Alesha Dixon - Knock Down

Tom: Gb

(Fm7 Bbm7)

When I lay it all out on the table
 Dont know what is stopping me
 From feeling like I might be able
 To enjoy my own company
 Sitting up by my window
 Watching the summer rain
 The world goes by and I'm in it faster than I can keep up with today

Knockdown
 Everybody in the place say what now
 Ya souls feeling shot down
 Lucks out
 But ya gotta carry on
 Speed it up now
 Woo Woo Woo Woo
 Knockdown
 Everybody in the place say what now
 Ya souls feeling shot down
 Lucks out

But ya gotta carry on
 Speed it up now

Oohh yeah I got the feeling
 That something could happen now
 Ohhh I got the feeling
 That something could happen inside my life now
 And have you ever asked why you've been here before
 Cos only you have the power to carry on through that door

Knockdown
 Everybody in the place say what now
 Ya souls feeling shot down
 Lucks out
 But ya gotta carry on
 Speed it up now
 Woo Woo Woo Woo
 Knockdown
 Everybody in the place say what now
 Ya souls feeling shot down
 Lucks out
 But ya gotta carry on
 Speed it up now
