

Alessia Cara - Seventeen

Tom: A

VERSO 1:

A
My daddy says that life comes at you fast
We all like blades of grass

We come to prime and in time we just wither away
Gbm
And it all changes
My view with a looking glass won't catch the past
D E
Only photographs remind us of the passing of days
A
Oh nothing stays the same from yesteryears
D
See I recall being afraid of the dark
And holding on to teddy bears
Gbm
I'd wrap myself in blankets just to cover me from fears
D
That was then and now I'm here
E
And the night is mine

So hear me scream
D
I was too young to understand what it means

I'm Seventeen

A
Oh but never were there truer words
And I'll my days I've ever heard

And never fought
