^{Em} ^D
I know of a tavern not far from here
^C ^B
Where you can get some mighty fine beer
^{Em} ^D
The company's true and the wenches are pretty
^{Em} ^D
If you're looking for crewmates, you'll sure find 'em there
^C ^B
Cutthroats and lowlives and worse I should dare
^{Em} ^D
Ol' Nancy don't care who comes to her inn

^{Em} ^G
So come take a drink and drown your sorrows
^D ^{Am} ^G
And all of our fears will be gone till tomorrow
^{Em} ^G
We'll have no regrets and live for the day
^C ^D ^{Em} ^B
In Nancy's Harbour Cafe

^{Em} ^G
So come take a drink and drown your sorrows

^{Em} ^D
If you're looking to go on a glorious quest
^C ^B

There's a man there who knows of an old treasure chest
^{Em} ^D
For some pieces of eight an a tankard of ale
^C ^B
He'll show ye the map and tell ye it's tale
^{Em} ^D
And then there's Nancy, the lovely barmaid
^C ^B
She may be old but her beauty ain't fading
^{Em} ^D
Ol' Nancy don't care who comes to her inn
