

Alex Roe - Smokin' And Crying'

Tom: D

Sittin' waitin' tables while she's sittin' waitin' for him to show
 What her name or story was, maybe I'll never know
 She ain't tryin' to hide what's goin' on inside
 And I know I've been there before
 Waitin' for somebody at the only place
 You'll see them anymore
 Well, she's hidin' out there in her car, smokin' and cryin'
 She don't have to go too far to figure out that she's dyin'
 Thinks her cigarette'll make it better, but she's just lyin'
 To herself about gettin' him back, she's still tryin'
 Nothin's ever gonna change but the time, man, it's flyin'

While she's smokin' and cryin'

She sees him pull up in his old truck with a brand-new girl
 I saw her face as she walked into the place
 And it wrecked her world
 Wish I could go outside and give her my best advice
 And tell her it would be okay
 But I just drank my coffee, and then I went on my way
 Now she's hidin' out there in her car, still smokin' and cryin'
 She don't have to go too far to figure out that she's dyin'
 Thinks her cigarette'll make it better, but she's just lyin'
 To herself about gettin' him back, she's tryin'
 Nothin's ever gonna change but the time, man, it's flyin'
 She's smokin' and cryin'
