Riff D:

Song goes as follows:

Riff A: x2

Riff A: there's no reason

Riff A: to deny

Riff A: it's the season

Riff A: of the lie

Riff B: having someone

Riff C: grin at you

Riff A: look at little fingers

Riff A: pointing truth

Riff D is chorus - but it's kind of jammy so i've put the chords below lyrics for easier interpretation

Man it's a weight on my mi_____nd

F F F E E A A xx G G x F F F

And that's fi_____ne

F E A A xx G G x F F F

But now we wade past the point of decli_____ne

F E A F F F E E A A xx G G x F F F

There's no ti_____me

F E A A xx G G x F F F

F E A

there you go, also it's maybe in dropped d but i did this rather quickly so there could be errors

yes, all this repeats with other lyrics, and the solo backing is just normal verse riff progression
