How to read this music:
--This is similar to reading regular sheet music.
--The top four lines represent the treble clef, the bottom four represent the base clef.
--The notes aren?t in there exact position, but they are close.
--The notes lower than the base clef lines are in the low octaves.
Example

|-------------------|
|----C--------------|
|-------------------|        The 1st note is middle C
|-------------------|        The 2nd note is the C one octave
  C                            higher than middle C.
                             The 3rd note is the C one octave
|-------------------------------|          below middle C.
|-------------------------------|        The 4th note is the C
