

All Time Low - Tidal Waves

Tom: D

Verso:

D Falling on my face again

So I know I'm right on track

It's hard for me to make amends

When you stab me in the back

Sail it on to another sorry shore

Talking shit

Say I'm your filthy little, filthy little...

Pré-Refrão:

Bm Like I just happen to be in the right place right time

Just settle down

Refrão:

D I earn my place with the tidal waves
I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

D I call my name as I crash the gates
Still I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

Em Why don't you think before you speak

Cause you don't know me at all

You don't know me at all

Verso 2:

D Tell me how you really feel

Write it on the bathroom wall

If anyone was watching I know you'd say nothing at all

Treading water

Yeah you're angry and you're bored

But I'm sick of this

I'm just your filthy little, filthy little...

Pré-Refrão 2:

Bm Like I just happen to be in the right place right time

Like I just happen to be at the right place right time

But would you settle down

Refrão 2:

D I earn my place with the tidal waves
I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

D I call my name as I crash the gates
Still I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

Em Why don't you think before you speak

Cause you don't know me at all

Ponte:

Spread your lies

Like fireflies

In a white hot summer

Try to pull me under

You sharpen words

To use like knives

When you lose your colour there'll be nothing left

Refrão 3:

D I earn my place with the tidal waves
I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

D I call my name as I crash the gates
Still I can't escape this feeling
That something ain't right

Em Why don't you think before you speak

Cause you don't know me at all

You don't know me at all

Final:

You don't know me at all

You don't know me at all

Em You don't know me at all
