

Allie paige - In Your Midst

Tom: G

I come to sit at Your feet
 To drink from the fountain of life
 How it satisfies
 No where else, do I want to be
 The warmth of Your heart is enough
 It's enough for me, yeah

(C F Am G)

Oh, I've come to have communion with the King
 To sit at the table and dine with the highest priest
 Oh, to know, just what's on Your mind
 The secret of Heaven, I'll live to search, to find
 So hide me deep inside Your heart, Lord
 Cover me with Your wings, bring me into safety
 Oh, bring me into fellowship with who You are, Lord
 Father, Son and Spirit, this is all I long for...

I've come to sit at Your feet
 To drink from the fountain of life
 How it satisfies
 No where else, do I want to be
 The warmth of Your heart is enough
 It's enough for me

So hide me deep inside Your heart, Lord
 Cover me with Your wings, bring me into safety
 Oh, bring me into fellowship with who You are, Lord
 Father, Son and Spirit, this is all I long for
 To be in Your midst
 To be in Your midst

This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known
 This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known
 This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known by You, Jesus
 This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known by You, Jesus
 This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known by You, Jesus
 This my heart's desire
 To know You and be known
 To know You and be known

So hide me deep inside Your heart, Lord
 Cover me with Your wings, bring me into safety
 Oh, bring me into fellowship with who You are, Lord
 Father, Son and Spirit, this is all I long for Hide me deep inside Your heart, Lord
 Cover me with Your wings, bring me into safety
 Oh, bring me into fellowship with who You are, Lord
 Father, Son and Spirit, this is all I long for

So hide me deep inside Your heart, Lord
 Cover me with Your wings, bring me into safety
 Oh, bring me into fellowship with who You are, Lord
 Father, Son and Spirit, this is all I long for
