

Allister - We Close Our Eyes

```
Tom: B
                                                      I might just disappear
           Gb Abm
we close our eyes and the
                                                        who am I? and if
                                                        Gb
world has turned around again
                                                      you think I'm worth it E
          Gb
we close our eyes and dream
                                                        and if you think it's not E Gb
another year has come and gone
                                                      too late we might start falling Dbm
Verso 1:
                                                      if we dont try too hard
                                                       we might start falling in love
when everybody is Repete Refrão
running in the big race  \\
                                                      Verso 3:
and having a good time
                                                      we're on the healing path
                                                                   Abm
        Dbm
we might've cast a
                                                          Gb
                                                      we're on a roller coaster

E

Gb
 E
shadow who am I?
                                                      ride that could never
 I looked how thin the turn back and if you love me
  В
face last night
                                                      Abm F
                                                      and if you really try
 F
I saw him in a mirror
                                                                Gb
                                                       to make the seconds count
when he simply smiled
                                                       then we could close
 Dbm
he told me not to worry
                                                      our eyes close our eyes
 he told me just to take my time and the world has turned Refrão:
                                                         B Gb
                                                      around again close our eyes
  Gb Abm
we close our eyes and the
                                                        another year has come and gone
    E
world has turned around again
                                                      Refrão:
         Gb
                                                         Gb Abm
we close our eyes and dream
                                                       we close our eyes and the
     Gb
 another year has come and gone
B Gb Abm
                                                      world has turned around again
we close our eyes and the
                                                                Gb
                                                      we close our eyes and dream
world has turned around again
                                                            Gb
                                                       another year has come and gone
     Gb E Gb
we close our eyes and dream
                                                      B Gb Abm
                                                      we close our eyes and the Verso 2:
                                                      world has turned around again
                                                            Gb E Gb
         Gb
 and if you come to me
                                                      we close our eyes and dream
          E
                                                      B Gb E
                                                      we close our eyes and the

Gb B(hold)
 and if you touch my hand
                                                      world has turned around again
I might just slip away
```

Acordes

