

Alhaville - Ain't It Strange

Tom: G

Ain't it strange that we destroy what we embrace
 And we leave what we seek
 It's such a shame
 Ain't it strange that we smile when we cry
 And no one knows why we are here
 And where we're going to
 Ain't it strange
 We could be, we could be so good together
 We could be, we could be so good together
 Ain't it strange that we share what we hate
 That we break what we love
 It's such a shame
 Ain't it strange when we pray we betray anyway
 And no one knows what we are for
 Why we're so tough why must hurt
 When we're so fragile
 Ain't it strange

We could be, we could be so good together
 We could be, we could be so good together
 Ain't it strange still we could fall into a dream
 I'd wish no one will catch that fall for we could fall for love
 Life is but a dream, life is but a dream
 All the tears in the world not in vain for the pain is gone
 The shame is washed away when we're all one
 Life is but a dream, life is but a dream
 It's hard to believe after thousand of years
 The world's still drowning in blood and tears
 We've been quite advanced but again we fail
 It's dog eat dog on the rat rave trail
 It's getting too much and we're getting nowhere
 While hatred and fear is all that we share
 I can't take it no more when I'm watching the news
 We must stick together or we're bound to lose
 Now listen to this.....
 We could be, we could be so good together
