

Alter Bridge - Brand New Start

```
Tom: Db
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Db Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     a life of agony
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Db
                                                                                                                                                    Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     god how we ache to be free Eb Intro 2x: Ebm7 Cm7 Gb Db Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we will make a brand new start
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Db Ab
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      from the pieces torn apart
Gtr1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Gb B Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      the break of day is before us В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Gb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      cast your sorrows to the wind Fbm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Db Ab
against the sky
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      let the highway take us in streams of light
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Eb Gb B Ebm
Gb Db
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     as we escape the disorder
call out to me and you % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Solo: Ebm Ab Gb Db Eb
Ebm7
we leave as one
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Eb Ab Gb Db Ebm
Cm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Eb Ab Gb Db Ebm
we've just begun
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Eb Ab Gb Db Ebm
                                                                                           Fbm
Gb
                          Db
to find the solace we're due В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Gb
Gb Db Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we will make a brand new start
this is a life we must choose
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Db Ab
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      from the pieces torn apart
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             Gb B Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      the break of day is before us
we will make a brand new start
                                Db Ab
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        B Gb
from the pieces torn apart
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      cast your sorrows to the wind
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Db Ab
                                        Gb B Fbm
the break of day is before us
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     let the highway take us in В
                                                                Gb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Eb Gb B Ebm
cast your sorrows to the wind
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     as we escape the disorder
                         Db Ab
let the highway take us in Eb Gb B Ebm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we'll make our way
as we escape the disorder
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Db Ab
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we'll make our way
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               B Gb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we'll make our way
this desert road
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Db Ab
Cm7
that we call home
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     we'll make our way
                             Db Ebm
Gb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     End: B Gb Db Ab
Gb B Ebm Gb B Ebm
Ebm7 Cm7 Gb Db Ebm
this is our destiny
Fbm7
we chase the setting sun
as we outrun
```

Acordes

