

Amanda Lacerda - Kissing You

tom:

[primeira parte]

I think about you everyday
And i hope that we could stay together but
You live too far away
Actually, it's just 4,000 miles
And i think we'll be just fine
Ok, it sucks i'm not gonna lie

[pré-refrão]

I don't know why i feel this way but
Your eyes, your smile and everything you say make Me miss the feeling of your arms around me
Just looking our pictures on my wall can't warm me

[refrão]

Facetime is not enough for me cause
I need more i need you here with me
And now i'm asking myself where this is gonna end
I hope the answer is you being more than a friend
I wanna steal your hoodies, feel your scent
I'm so sick and tired of pretending i don't love you
Oh you know that i do
And now i can't help dreaming of kissing you
(G Am G)

[segunda parte]

You always help me through it all
And even miles apart
You know the right time to make a call
When i'm with you i feel alive yeah
I'm into you i can't deny

[pré-refrão]

I don't know why i feel this way but

Your hair, your body, everything you say make me miss
The feeling of your arms around me
Just looking our pictures on my wall can't warm me

[refrão]

Facetime is not enough for me cause
I need more i need you here with me
And now i'm asking myself where this is gonna end
I hope the answer is you being more than a friend
I wanna steal your hoodies, feel your scent
I'm so sick and tired of pretending i don't love you
Oh you know that i do
And now i can't help dreaming of kissing you
(G Am G)

[ponte]

I love feeling your heartbeat close to mine
Spending the day together outside
I miss when our fingers were interlocked
And the jokes that you told me as we walked
I feel butterflies when our eyes meet
And i want to breathe the same air you breathe
Now look me in the eyes and say
Please say you want me the same way

[refrão]

Facetime is not enough for me cause
I need more i need you here with me
And now i'm asking myself where this is gonna end
I hope the answer is you being more than a friend
I wanna steal your hoodies, feel your scent
I'm so sick and tired of pretending i don't love you
Oh you know that i do
And now i can't help dreaming of kissing you
Kissing you
Dreaming of kissing you
